

FAQ's about Brotherhood

What is Brotherhood?

The Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood, affiliated with the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC), welcomes you to join us for friendly camaraderie, educational and social programs, delicious breakfasts, and synagogue and community participation. Additionally, we sponsor programs that encourage participation from children and the synagogue community as a whole.

What is the purpose of Brotherhood?

The purpose of Brotherhood is to help the Synagogue and the Rabbi's vision for a community of caring, learning, prayer, repairing the world and connection to Jews around the world, by providing a setting in which men can learn together, pray together, serve together and enjoy camaraderie in a pleasant social environment. One of the benefits of belonging to this dynamic organization includes the fostering of interpersonal relationships which can have a positive impact on your job and at home.

How does one become a member?

Membership in the Brotherhood is open to all men, including those who have recently become Bar Mitzvah. New synagogue members are entitled to complimentary Brotherhood membership the first year. New Bar Mitzvah boys have free membership until they turn 18. Contact our Membership Chairman, Kevin O'Connell and he will sign koconnell@ctappraisalworks.com.

How much does it cost to participate?

Membership dues are currently $40.00 a year. At each Sunday breakfast meeting, we provide the opportunity for voluntary sponsorship donations to help defray the cost of food, as well as to honor or remember someone or recognize an important event or achievement. These donations will be acknowledged in the Synagogue newsletter, Everything Emanuel.

Are there men my age in Brotherhood?

Yes! We have men of all ages.

How often are the meetings? When? Where?

Breakfast meetings are held Sunday mornings from 9:00 AM to 10:45 AM, five or six times per year, in the Koret Hall after morning Minyan and when fathers drop off children at the Synagogue School. Other meetings are held from time to time in the evening, such as our Annual Dinner with the Rabbi at which time Rabbi Small leads a discussion on topics of interest to Jewish men, an annual paid up membership dinner and several dessert and coffee evenings during the year with the Rabbi Small and Cantor Cohn. The Brotherhood also participates in the Simchat Torah, Purim Celebration, and Yom HaShoah Remembrance program with the Religious School and numerous other programs throughout the year. Women are always welcome to attend our programs.

What do you do at the meetings?

At our breakfast meetings we usually have keynote speakers, such as sports personalities, educators, and prominent community, religious and business leaders.

FAQ's about Brotherhood

What other activities does Brotherhood conduct?

We are a very active and cohesive group. The following list indicates the variety of things we do together:

- Special evening meetings honoring the Rabbi and Cantor
- Participation in the FJMC World Wide Wrap, encouraging the mitzvah of Tefillin
- The FJMC Yellow Candle Program, which distributes memorial candles to commemorate the Holocaust and raises money to provide Holocaust education
- Brotherhood Shabbat, at which members conduct the service, read Torah and have bimah honors
- Host and provide logistical support to the Israeli robotics teams for their annual competition at Trinity College
- Our annual Members BBQ, at which we honor those who have provided exceptional service to Brotherhood
- We honor each Bar and Bat Mitzvah with the presentation of a pertinent book about Judaism at their special occasion
- Sponsor trips to sporting events such as the University of Hartford Women's basketball team and the Rock Cats/Yard Goats baseball team
- We have been supportive of outside organizations such as the Foodshare, Israel's The Jaffa Institute, Beit Ha' Gefen Cultural Center Haifa Israel, Voice of Hope/Greenberg Institute, Kosher Food Pantry, and more

What opportunities are there to become active in Brotherhood?

We welcome all to attend our meetings, and encourage any who are interested to participate in running the programs we sponsor. Opportunities exist to organize meetings, assist in mailings, chair and provide assistance in the coordination of events, and join our Board of Directors, etc.

Who do we contact if we have further questions or if we want to get involved?
