with Gillian Walnes Perry

Monday, June 24th at 7:00pm

Congregation Beth Israel
701 Farmington Ave., West Hartford 06119

Congregation Beth Israel and The Emanuel Synagogue present noted Anne Frank scholar Gillian Walnes Perry. Perry will discuss her book, The Legacy of Anne Frank, which examines the long-term influences of the world-famous Jewish teenager.

Gillian Walnes Perry co-founded the Anne Frank Trust in the United Kingdom in 1990 with family and friends of Anne Frank's father, Otto Frank. A not-for-profit educational charity, the Trust uses Anne Frank's powerful and tragic story to help young people understand and challenge prejudice and hatred, and embrace positive attitudes, responsibility, and respect for others. In 2010, Gillian received a Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (MBE) for her work. After 26 years of building the Anne Frank Trust, she retired as Executive Director. She now lectures and writes about the life and legacy of Anne Frank, as well as a range of popular social history topics.

Free and open to all.
