Martin Lazarus
2019 Keeper of the Flame
From the Connecticut Valley Region,
Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs

ABOUT MARTIN:

A US Army Veteran (Korea, 1952-54), Martin Lazarus married Sylvia in 1973, settling in Connecticut and becoming parents of twins in 1975. Martin and his family were members of Beth Hillel for over 25 years, and after joining the Emanuel in 2014, Martin became an active member of the Brotherhood Kitchen team.

After a professional career as a semi-conductor manufacturing rep, Martin has been 'mostly retired' for the last ten years, and can usually be found on Thursday nights in the Emanuel kitchen helping prepare Brotherhood Kiddush.

A proud grandfather of seven, Martin's positive attitude makes everyone love to be around him, and so we are honored to bestow the 2019 Keeper of the Flame award to Martin Lazarus in recognition of his years of dedicated service to the Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood.
