FROM THE RABBI

YISHAR KOACH, MEL! PRAISE FOR THE PURPOSE-DRIVEN PRESIDENT

Before Mel Simon became President of The Emanuel, it was clear he intended to take what Dr. Abraham Joshua Heschel calls “a leap of action” (God in Search of Man). A stalwart supporter and trusted advisor to Emanuel Presidents Dr. Sheila Silverman and Elysa Graber-Lipperman, Mel investigated the structure and assumptions of synagogue funding and headed a Strategic Committee to explore the evolving clergy needs of our Emanuel Family. As President, Mel displayed his extraordinary ability to focus on the “big picture” while paying close attention to key details. Before the full Board of Trustees or one-on-one, Mel’s meetings serve a specific purpose, follow a coherent agenda and always identify next actions.

Mel leads by example. He takes on tasks large and small and encourages commitment and accountability from other lay leaders and professional staff. At the same time, Mel reflects upon and articulates the ultimate purposes of a Kebillah Kedoshah, a Sacred Community, and of life itself. Mel’s high standards for himself and our synagogue and his determined presence and leadership have earned our respect and gratitude. During Mel’s Presidency, The Emanuel: bade farewell to a longstanding clergy leader, Hazzan Sanford Cohn; weathered a period without an Executive Director; recruited and hired a new Executive Director, Kobi Benita; a new Engagement Coordinator, Josh Cohen; renewed our Director of Teen and Family Learning, Barbara Fink; revised the role of Hazzan Moshe Pinchover; renewed our Student Rabbi, Jessica Dell’Era; and, at long last, recruited and engaged our new Cantor, Daniella Risman. Mel brought many devoted and talented people together to

BLUMENSTEIN
FUNERALS

Hi, we're Glenn, Tiffany,
Levi (8), Elijah (6),
and Aliyah (4) Blumenstein, and we're new to The Emanuel Synagogue!

And while we may be new to The Emanuel Synagogue, we're not new to Connecticut or the business of helping families care for their loved ones.

For 7 years here in CT, we've strived to serve the Jewish communities through our family of Funeral Homes. We've even been instrumental in helping to create Chevra Kadisha's in both Willimantic & Manchester, and even built a dedicated Tahara room. While we serve families of all faiths and lifestyles, we find our greatest peace and happiness when we can help those in the Jewish Community.

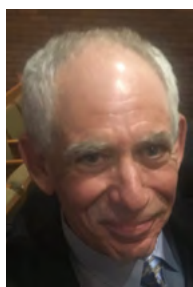

Please don't wait until you "need us" - call, email, Zoom...we're not shy, and we want to get to know our new community here at The Emanuel.

We look forward to celebrating Shabbat with you soon.

FROM THE PRESIDENT — INFLECTION POINT: A MOMENT WHEN SIGNIFICANT CHANGE OCCURS

Please allow me to introduce myself. I am the 43rd President of The Emanuel Synagogue. I have big shoes to fill, and I ask for your help in doing so.

JEWISH ROOTS

Do you recognize the Inflection Points in your lives? I trace my Jewish journey to several moments in time. I remember being enrolled in Hebrew School at age ten. We were encouraged to attend Saturday morning services. Few ten-year-olds do so willingly, and my parents didn't force it. They didn't have to. As an incentive, my Hebrew School gave us little stamp books similar to the S&H Green stamp books. Many of you may recall saving S&H stamps and redeeming them for merchandise. We received stamps with depictions of the parasha for each week and each holiday service we attended. Although there was nothing of a material nature the filled stamps book could get you, I coveted those stamps and filled my books for three years. The result — I loved going to synagogue and was well prepared for my Bar Mitzvah.

BAR MITZVAH

Our Mom (I am one of three sons), passed away five months before my Bar Mitzvah, an event which could have derailed all hopes and dreams of success. I turned away from Judaism following my Bar Mitzvah. My Hebrew name died with my mother; no one else knew it. I was called to the Torah by a name given me by Rabbi Jacob Chinitz, of blessed memory — Yeshayahu Ze'ev ben Gershon v' Chaya, the same name by which I am called to the Torah today.

RECONNECTING TO JUDAISM

I met my future wife, Pam, in law school. Her parents had a warm, comfortable Jewish home. We married and established our home a short distance from The Emanuel Synagogue. Fire burned the Emanuel Synagogue in 1983, and we became members. Four years later our daughter, Elena, was born. Elena attended Hebrew School. Torat Chayim (a component of our religious school) required parents to participate in Sunday morning programming. I heard Rabbi Lazowski tell his story, and I remember thinking, if this man has faith after his journey during the Holocaust, my doubts pale by comparison.

ISRAEL

Pam and I took a congregational trip to Israel with Rabbi Gerald Zelermyer, Heske and Gideon in 1999. My relationship with the Jewish People and the State of Israel was signed, sealed and delivered. I have returned ten times since. Those who have spent time in Israel understand this passion. Coming home from that trip I pledged to study, learn, participate and contribute to The Emanuel as my West Hartford connection to Israel and Jewishness.

LEADERSHIP

Finally, as I watched my brother Mel in the last two years place Emanuel on his shoulders and help carry it through one of its most challenging episodes in our more than 100 years, I realized he needed my help; I answered his call by agreeing to follow him as President. And so, Hineni, Here I Am.

The next time you come into our sanctuary please notice the inscription over our Bima: "You are holy for I, the Lord, am holy." There are many reasons why we come to our sacred space. All are valid and important. I believe as we reenter that sacred space we are at an Inflection Point. Others have carried us work on behalf of our synagogue and keep our mission alive and well.

Mel faced challenging questions during his term:

- How will we keep our Emanuel safe and secure, yet welcoming?
- What aspects of synagogue life appeal to members whom we do not always see at our weekly Sabbath Services? Where can we find points of connections for all our members?
- What measures shall we take during COVID-19 to protect our members and staff? How can we stay in touch with our members during this fraught and frightening time?
- Why should our members stay connected with and continue to support The Emanuel when access to the physical building is limited?
- Where will we find the financial resources to keep our Emanuel strong?
- Who will we look to for current and future support and leadership of our congregation? Who will step up to our Board of Trustees and Executive Committee? Who will succeed me as President?
- How will we learn, strategize and build for our future?

For each of these questions, Mel studied, thought, discussed, engaged others and acted. With his strong guidance and unswerving determination, The Emanuel emerges from one of the most challenging periods in any congregation's life, and we not only survive but we thrive.

Mel kept another key question before him throughout his term: How can I best work together with our Rabbi to serve the needs of our congregation and how can I support the Rabbi in serving our people in a most trying period? Week after week Mel made sure we were in sync and gave regular, generous support at the most challenging times.

As a human being, Mel wrestled with ultimate questions:

- How do I go on in the wake of the life-changing loss of my beloved wife, Carrie?
- How do I absorb the emotional reactions of so many people while trying to heal myself?
- How can I help our congregation be a moral voice and engage the important moral and spiritual issues of our time, including racism, inequality and a disintegrating public discourse?
- How can I immerse myself daily in the burdens and conflicts of leadership and yet maintain the joy and meaning that comes to me from my Judaism?

In every case, Mel rose to the challenge and engaged these vital questions with integrity and courage.

Jewish philosopher and Holocaust survivor Viktor Frankl writes: “[in] American culture..., one is commanded...to ‘be happy.’ But happiness cannot be pursued; it must ensue. One must have a reason to ‘be happy.’”

Mel, you have given all of us great reason to be happy. May you savor the happiness that ensues from your leadership in this most pivotal time in our Emanuel Synagogue's life!

Yishar Koach and Todah Rabbah —
I extend you sincere praise and heartfelt thanks! — Rabbi David J. Small this far. Rabbi David Small, Hazzan Moshe Pinchover, Kobi Benita with his staff of Lisa Lenkiewicz, Lisa Taylor, Kathy Hart, Wendy Greco and Joe Ward with the custodial staff have worked tirelessly during the last 15 months. We owe them and many other lay leaders and volunteers a great debt of thanks we can only repay if we continue their work. As we welcome Hazzan Daniella Risman to our clergy, we are ready to take Emanuel to the next level! It is our turn to rededicate ourselves, maintain our tradition of excellence and adapt to the future by opening our doors to all.

To Our Fellow Emanuelites:

Our restroom renovation project has begun! The dumpster is here and demolition has started. The final "d" needed are donations. Thank you to all those who contributed thus far. This has allowed us to embark on the first phase of our project, providing accessible restrooms for women and men near the front entrance of our synagogue. The project needs to continue with the restoration of the family restroom and women's restroom near Silverman Auditorium. Donations are still needed to complete the task.

Presently, the accommodations are not suitable for a modern-day synagogue. Please join us as we support the campaign to raise funds for renovation of our outdated, long-neglected restrooms. Any contribution is welcomed and deeply appreciated. A flyer with the information for submitting your donation is above. If you have any questions, please contact Committee Chairperson, Hilda Slivka at hsliv@aol.com or 860-916-3354. Thank you for helping to make The Emanuel Synagogue a pleasant and inviting home for our Jewish community.

Sincerely,
The Restroom Renovation Committee

B'YADEYNU NEWS

by Janet Wallans and Risa Davidson, Co-chairs

Thank you to all who donated to the Passover Fund this year. We had an amazing response! The total was $4,087. The following organizations were the recipients of these funds: Foodshare, the food distribution agency for the Greater Hartford area; the Anja Rosenberg Kosher Food Pantry of Jewish Family Services; Leket Israel, the food collection and distribution agency in Israel; and CIRC (Connecticut Immigrant and Refugee Services Coalition), a non-profit organization promoting the rights of immigrants and refugees in Connecticut.

In addition, a $500 contribution was made from B'Yadefnu's discretionary fund to United Hatzalah of Israel (www.israelrescue.org). Their mission is to provide rapid emergency medical care to all people in Israel regardless of race, religion or national origin. There are 6,000 volunteers around the country available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Traveling on specially equipped motorcycle ambulances, volunteer medics can arrive on scene within three minutes or less, stabilizing a patient while waiting for an ambulance. The volunteer team is diverse, consisting of Jews and Arabs, religious and secular Jews, Druze, Bedouins and Christians.

Those interested in learning more about B'Yadefnu's activities may contact Janet Wallans (janetcw@sbcglobal.net) or Risa Davidson (risagdavidson@gmail.com).

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

We have had a busy spring with a Zoom program with Dr. Susannah Heschel and many presentations co-sponsored with synagogues around the country. We went on a virtual tour of the Tenement Museum, learned about the Beatles, the influence of Jewish women in America, the musical contributions of the late Debbie Friedman, the intricacies of Israel's West Bank, how our Bible came to be, and explored the history of the Jewish deli. Rabbi Small led the Natalie Ziplow Study Group with both study of traditional texts and discussions of contemporary current events.

The Adult Education program schedule can be accessed online at emanuelsynagogue.org, by clicking on "Calendar" under the "What's Happening" tab. You can then click on "Calendars to show," "Adult Education," and "Update View" to see current programming. Some of our Zoom programs are recorded and available for viewing online. To see what is available, please go to "Learn," then "Adult Education." At the very bottom of the page, you will see a red "You Tube" button. If you click on that you will see which recordings are available.

Coming Up:

The Natalie Ziplow Study Group will continue during the summer, facilitated by Eric Maurer, on Zoom, Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m., July 8, 15, 22, 29, and August 5 and 12. All are welcome!

Please check your weekly Emanuel Updates, the Emanuel Synagogue website, and the Emanuel Mishpacha Facebook page for information on upcoming programs and registration links. We remind you pre-registration is now required for Emanuel Adult Education programs on Zoom in order to ensure a secure and meaningful experience. Participants must register on the link provided in the weekly Updates or on the Emanuel website. The actual Zoom link will be sent out to registered participants by email. It is helpful if your Zoom name and your registration name are the same or very similar so we can easily verify your identity.

News From The SISTERHOOD

by Fern Cohen, President

Shalom! We all know the last sixteen months have been challenging for everyone. Our Sisterhood worked very hard to present programs of interest for all. We partnered with other arms of the synagogue. Thank you to Brotherhood, Adult Ed, Chesed and B'Yadeynu for teaming up with us. Our programming was enhanced by working together.

Every year, Sisterhood is fortunate to have a dinner and program with the Rabbi. This year instead of dinner, the Rabbi spoke on "The Art of Hiddur — Jewish Artifacts and Artisan Objects I Love." It was a very interesting program. I know many of our members will be looking at their own collections.

As I begin my term as Sisterhood President, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank several people. A huge Yasher Koach to Carolyn Topol for a beautiful Installation. Mazel Tov to the new board. I look forward to our working together. Thank you to my mentors Sue Bergman, Carolyn Topol and Bonnie Lasker. Most importantly, we thank our 161 members for their continued support.

We are always open for ideas and more volunteers. Please contact me at stringteacher@cox.net.

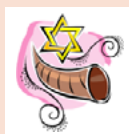

JUDAIC SHOP HAS HOLIDAY ITEMS

We wish everyone a very happy, healthy and safe summer. When the synagogue reopens fully, we will be able to open the gift shop. In the meantime, we are meeting customers by appointment only.

The High Holidays begin early this year, and we have beautiful apple and honey dishes to adorn your holiday table. For the holidays, we have Kiddush cups, Shabbat candles and candlesticks or how about a new kippah?

Call Lisa Tesser at 860-805-0539 or Debbie Bettan at 860-798-9355 to set up a time to shop. We take cash, check and charge and look forward to helping you find the perfect gift!

News From The BROTHERHOOD

by Jeff Adler, President

Brotherhood wishes everyone a wonderful summer. The pandemic is receding and we have the opportunity to be out and experience events and programs in person, rather than only through Zoom.

Brotherhood is pleased we are now back in the kitchen and preparing food for events and planning for in person programs this fall and next year. We expect to hold a number of Sunday breakfasts with interesting speakers and timely discussion topics, having our evening dinner programs for paid up members, dinner with the Rabbi and to have a program with our new Cantor, Daniella Risman. We expect we will continue to take advantage of our new technology and offer remote access to many of these programs.

We will send out our dues notice for 2021-2022, with a full calendar of events for the upcoming year. We hope you will consider joining the Brotherhood and participating in many of our activities during the year.

Again, have a great summer.

A GREAT DAY FOR FISHING AND CATCHING!

They say every day is a great day for fishing, but not every day is a great day for catching. Luckily, when The Emanuel Synagogue went fishing on May 23, it was a great day for both! Emanuel members shared the Sunbeam VII with teens from BBYO for a half-day fishing charter on Long Island Sound. After steaming to Gardners Island in NY, things got off to a slow start but then quickly turned. Rabbi Lazowski caught the first fish and once he did, it opened the floodgates for non-stop action! For three hours straight, the fish kept coming over the rail. Spending the day together were Rabbi Lazowski, Hazzan Pinchover, Emanuel Executive Director Kobi Benita, Emanuel Engagement Director Josh Cohen, Marshall Soltz, Terry Cohn, Andy Selinger, Mark Jacobson, Lev Kropsky, Lee and Adam Gold and Mark and Adam Merritt.

All had a great time and look forward to going again.

Emanuel members enjoy a beautiful day on the Sound.
