FROM THE RABBI

HaYom — Today

Shofar cries
Birth pangs
Broken waters part
Moving Spirit scuds the surface
Nurtures new life
Creatures take shape
Emerge from Chaos
Rise from primordial muck
Stand
Take breath,
Ruah spirit moves within us
HaYom Today
we stand at the Beginning
Life pulses
Breath sings
Notes resonate
We stand
open Ready to Receive Renew
Rebirth Return!

PREPLANNING A FUNERAL

BLUMENSTEIN FUNERALS OFFERS A PREPLANNING SERVICE THAT CAN BE THE ANSWER TO MANY QUESTIONS SURROUNDING FUNERAL SERVICES

Our own mortality is never an easy subject to talk about, let alone accept as a reality, but it is a fact that we all have to face. If you have children, a husband, or a wife, it is very important that you take the responsibility to put things in order in case of a premature death, or a death at a ripe old age from natural causes. There will always be arrangements that need to be made, people to alert, and legal matters to deal with. Preplanning your funeral and prepaying for it have many benefits for both you and your survivors.

MONEY MATTERS

Planning ahead lets you make arrangements to cover the funeral costs. Even if you are leaving sufficient money, will your survivors be able to access it?

WHEN YOU PREPLAN AND PREPAY FOR A FUNERAL

YOU LOCK IN THE CURRENT FUNERAL PRICES therefore you avoid rising costs in the future.

According to the National Funeral Directors Association between 2004 and 2019, the median cost of a funeral rose 27% (from $5583 to $7640)

AVOID PROBATE COURT ISSUES

All wills in Connecticut go through probate court, and that means your money or your estate that could be used to pay for your funeral will be in limbo for weeks or possibly even months.

If you don't have a will, estate distribution could take even longer.

When you prepay for your funeral, your family will not have to struggle to come up with the money to pay for services. Instead they can focus on prayer and mourning.

Having your funeral paid for in advance limits your estate, and therefore your estate taxes your beneficiaries will have to pay.

YOUR PREFERENCES WILL BE HONORED

When you preplan your funeral your choices are made clear to those you leave behind.

You can plan it down to the detail if you wish, even down to the guest list.

Ensure you have a ceremony that honors the traditions of our ancestors.

You will decide what will be done with your body, including where and when you will be buried.

Do you want to be buried in Israel? Advanced planning is key to making that possible.

RELIEVE YOUR FAMILY OF THE BURDEN

Your family and community will be mourning the loss of you, and will be so relieved to know that you thought of them by taking care of all the details for them.

The financial burden of a funeral is also a final gift you can give to your family.

HAVE YOUR PAPERWORK IN ORDER

Having your funeral paid for in advance limits your estate, and therefore the estate taxes your beneficiaries will have to pay.

The best thing to do is to have a local legal professional have your will, a copy of funeral preplanning and other important paperwork so that matters can be handled quickly and efficiently.

FROM THE PRESIDENT — L'SHANAH TOVAH! G'MAR TOV!

We read about the binding of Isaac on Rosh Hashanah. Why? I think of the story as a Cautionary Tale. Do we stop and think before making weighty decisions?

Do we hesitate to act in matters of great importance in our lives? In the law we refer to the Reasonable Person Standard. How do we respond? We look backward and forward; then we act.

When we think about this past year at Emanuel Synagogue we begin with the 2020 High Holy Day services broadcast exclusively on Zoom and Livestream. We missed greeting each other in person. However, for our health and safety, we carried on remotely, remaining in our homes. One B'nai Mitzvah family who celebrated at home found Rabbi Small on my porch conducting Zoom services due to power outages at his home and at The Emanuel. We slowly but surely began meeting in person, wearing masks to Shabbat and morning services. Although there were a few people in the Sanctuary most continued to use Zoom. As the B'nai Mitzvah season began, there were larger groups gathering together, sometimes as many as 60 people. The ruach was returning.

Congregants received vaccinations and our Saturday morning attendance continued to grow. By the time the B'nai Mitzvah season ended, there were 30-40 congregants in the Sanctuary on Shabbat. We began to serve lunch and our attendance increased to 50. When we resumed our traditional Kiddush in July, the numbers of attendees climbed. Now on a given Shabbat there are 70-90 participants in the Sanctuary. I am pleased to report when Hazzan Daniella Risman arrived on July 23 there were 150 attendees for Friday Night Shabbat Under the Stars and 130 joined for dinner. On Saturday, 100 people worshiped and welcomed Hazzan Risman in our beautiful Sanctuary. The Hazzan delivered!

Of course, we don't know what next week will bring, let alone next year. If we have to make more stringent decisions to keep our congregation safe, we will. We do know we will have beautiful High Holy Day services led by our amazing clergy: Rabbi Small, Hazzan Risman and Hazzan Pinchover. We know we will pay tribute to Rabbi Philip and Ruth Lazowski and Rabbi David Small and Debbie Chameides on Oct.1-3. We know we will have a history lecture and a Cantorial Concert to highlight Ben Engel's latest play, "Havdalah." This play will debut at The Emanuel on Nov. 7. So many good things are happening. And yes, we still need to be vigilant and prepared to change course if necessary. If required, we shall act.

As we review our year and think about repentance let us also reflect on the good we have done and will continue to do. Telephone calls to congregants in need are so important. Helping to make a minyan for someone who mourns can make the difference for one who is grieving. Sometimes it's just a kind word that may make someone's day. Before you act to walk away from a mitzvah opportunity, hesitate and consider what that mitzvah might mean to just one person.

Happy New Year 5782. May you have a good and sweet year. And may you be inscribed in the Book of Life for Good!

— Ken Simon

SUKKOT HOME OBSERVANCE

The Festival of Sukkot offers several opportunities for home observances.

-  Blessing and waving the arba minim, a.k.a. the lulav and etrog, can be done every day of the Festival except on Shabbat. Sitting in the sukkah can be done any day of the festival.
-  Don't own a lulav and etrog? Come use the set we have at The Emanuel.
-  Don't have a sukkah this year? Visit a friend or neighbor who has one. Also, the sukkah at The Emanuel is available for you.
-  Eating a meal or snack and even sleeping in the sukkah enhances the fulfillment of the mitzvah, "To dwell in the sukkah."

The blessings that are said for each of these mitzvot are included below:

Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu leisheiv basukkah	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצוותיו וציונו לישב בסוכה
Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al n'tilat lulav.	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצוותיו וציונו על נטילת לולב
Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam shecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higyanu lazman hazeh.	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו והגיענו לזמן הזה

FROM THE CANTOR

SHALOM SHALOM!

by Hazzan Daniella Risman

What an honor it is to be stepping into the role of your new Hazzan! I am humbled to serve at the shul of the great Cantor Arthur Koret and grateful to Hazzan Sanford Cohn for so beautifully nurturing the musical legacy at The Emanuel. I hope you will indulge me as I take this opportunity to introduce myself.

A little about me: A sabra from the North of Israel, I came to the United States as a young child. I am the mother of two beautiful children, Judah, who is nearly one year old, and Zehava, who is age three. This past spring I graduated from and was ordained as a Cantor at The Jewish Theological Seminary of America. My husband, Eric Hoffman, and I are excited to build a home here, in West Hartford, with you, our new Emanuel community.

Love of music and service have shaped the choices I have made throughout my life. In my undergraduate studies at Oberlin College and Conservatory of Music and my graduate studies at San Francisco Conservatory of Music, I imagined I would find a way to combine music and tikkun olam as my life's work. The cantorate eventually became the clear way to build the life and world that I dream.

The great loves of my life — my family, dear friends, and children — have built in me a passion and joy in showing people they are valued and loved. I hope my work as your Hazzan will offer me opportunities to build relationships with, affirm the dignity of and connect lovingly with many of you. In my conversations with Rabbi Small and Hazzan Pinchover, I have been struck by how warmly and earnestly they care for this community. I intend to work side by side with them to continue to build at The Emanuel a sense of radical welcome, deep learning and joy in the many facets of Jewish practice and culture.

I hope you will find an opportunity to send me an email at CantorRisman@emanuelsynagogue.org or call me on the phone. The coming year will be a chance for us to become acquainted. I am eager to listen and learn. What is it that you love about The Emanuel? What do you long for? Perhaps there is a melody you would like me to learn or one you would like to learn. Is there a synagogue skill you can take ownership of with my guidance? Let's get to know each other, and build this singing community together!

The pandemic leaves us with a sense of not knowing what tomorrow might bring. In drawing from the well of our musical tradition, we can be bolstered and, like the Israelites upon crossing the Red Sea, raise our voices in song and celebration, together, in safety, bimhera b'yameinu.

To Our Fellow Emanuelites:

The first phase of our Restroom Renovation Project — providing accessible restrooms near the front entrance of the synagogue — should be completed in time for the High Holidays. Thank you to those who contributed thus far. The project needs to continue with the restoration of the family restroom and women's restroom near Silverman Auditorium. Donations are still needed to complete the task.

The plan is to update all the restroom facilities for our members and guests. Presently, the accommodations are not suitable for a modern-day synagogue. We are hoping our fellow congregants will assist with this important endeavor.

Please join us as we support the campaign to raise funds for remediation of our outdated, long neglected restrooms. Any contribution is welcomed and deeply appreciated. A flyer with the information for submitting your donation is above. If you have any questions, please contact Committee Chairperson, Hilda Slivka at Hsliv@aol.com or (860) 916-3354. Thank you for helping to make The Emanuel Synagogue a pleasant and inviting home for our Jewish community.

Sincerely,

BEN ENGEL'S PLAY, "HAVDALAH," RETURNS TO STAGE NOVEMBER 7

YALE HISTORY PROFESSOR TO SPEAK OCT. 10;
HAZZAN RISMAN TO HEADLINE CONCERT OCT. 20

The Emanuel Players will return to the stage Sunday, November 7, with a staged reading of Ben Engel's latest play, "Havdalah," directed by Adrian A. Durlister.

The play looks at the pressures, conflicts and opportunities Jews faced when they encountered modern life in Nineteenth Century Berlin. Engel tells the story by focusing on the large and prominent Mendelssohn family.

"Jews won more freedom as they emerged into the modern era, but handled it in different ways," Ben said. "Some sought to change the religion. Others converted. Still others remained traditional. This set brother against brother, partner against partner, Orthodox versus Reform.

"You see all this in the Mendelssohns and their friends. But also, the pressures they faced are mirrored by challenges we face today," Ben said.

Leading the cast will be Rabbi Steve Chatinover as Joseph Mendelssohn, Pat Kazakoff as his wife Hinni, Mike Isko as Felix Mendelssohn, Mel Simon as the violinist Ferdinand David, and Elizabeth Ehrlich as Felix's wife Cecile. The cast also includes Esther Aronson as Joseph's brother Abraham; Fred Spaeth as Joseph's son Alexander, Eric Hoffman as the writer Joseph Lehmann, and Moshe Pinchover as the lawyer Konrad Schleinitz. Also performing will be Mark Wolfberg as reformer Aaron Bernstein, Lesley Weiner as publisher Moritz Veit, Rabbi David Small as Rabbi Michael Sachs, and Carolyn Topol as the Narrator.

In the run-up to the production, on Sunday, October 10, Emanuel will host Yale Professor of History David Sorkin, a scholar of the period. Sorkin's 4 p.m. presentation, which will be free and open to the public, is titled: "Faith Divided: The Jewish Encounter with Modern Life." The speech will be co-sponsored by the Emanuel Synagogue Adult Education Committee, the University of Connecticut Center for Judaic Studies, the Maurice Greenberg Center for Judaic Studies of the University of Hartford and Rabbi Gerald B. Zelermyer Lecture Fund.

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF GREATER HARTFORD

EMANUEL JOINS PHILANTHROPIC LIFE & LEGACY PROGRAM

The Emanuel Synagogue is one of 15 local Jewish organizations participating in a legacy giving initiative spearheaded by The Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford (JCF) which brought the Harold Grinspoon Foundation's LIFE & LEGACY program to the community. The LIFE & LEGACY program has successfully secured more than 28,000 legacy commitments that have an estimated value of more than a billion dollars for Jewish organizations across North America. The Emanuel aims to build on its culture of endowment and legacy giving (Menorah Legacy Society) by participating in the initiative.

Earnings from endowment funds held in The Emanuel Endowment or from funds held at the JCF for the benefit of the synagogue provide operating funds to the synagogue annually by distributing a portion of the earnings from the funds. These distributions support the operations of the synagogue and are a welcome and regular source of revenue. Distributions from The Emanuel Endowment or the JCF for the benefit of The Emanuel are made possible by congregants and individuals who have made generous contributions during their lifetimes or through planned legacy gifts. The Emanuel is fortunate to have an established Menorah Legacy Society.

Rabbi David Small, Executive Director Kobi Benita, Immediate Past President Melvin Simon, Elysa Graber-Lipperman, Deborah Zuckerman, Alan Rosenberg, Dr. Donald Miller, and Hollis Dorman are leading The Emanuel's participation in the LIFE & LEGACY program. The goals of The Emanuel team are to educate and engage congregants on the importance of legacy giving and to strengthen The Emanuel's philanthropic culture further. The team is benefiting from utilizing the program's and JCF's coaching and training resources and hopes to help the congregation receive incentive grants available to participating synagogues and agencies.

Please look out for more information about The Emanuel's LIFE & LEGACY campaign or reach out to one of the team members if you would like to learn how you can join The Emanuel's Menorah Legacy Society. We appreciate your generosity and support and Todah Rabah to all of the synagogue's current Menorah Legacy Society members.

On October 10, Hazzan Daniella Risman will headline a concert at the Synagogue including music of Felix Mendelssohn and exploring "What is Jewish Music" through other musicians of the time. The concert will also be free and open to the public.

Part of the story involves creation of the great "Violin Concerto in E Minor" by Felix Mendelssohn. The play suggests that the Jewish-born composer, who was converted to Lutheranism by his father at age seven, was conflicted as an adult about his religion, and that the conflict surfaced during composition of the Concerto. Ben noted that while that is speculative, overall the play is based on historical events. Ben inserted snippets from the violin concerto, and some of the composer's short piano works, into the play.

General Admission tickets will be $18.00 or $25.00. Tickets will go on sale Oct. 1.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

The Adult Education Committee is looking forward to the coming year. We are delighted Student Rabbi Jessica Dell'Era will be continuing at the Emanuel and working with us on programming. During the summer, Eric Maurer led the Natalie Ziplow summer study group in a series of stimulating discussions about “Israel, Antisemitism, and the American Jew.” Rabbi Small will begin fall study Thursday, Sept. 9, using both traditional texts and current events.

August programs included the movie “Maktub” and a “Triologue” with Rabbi Small, Hazzan Risman and Rabbinical Intern Jessica Dell'Era. Upcoming programs include a talk on Oct. 10, by Yale Professor David Sorkin in preparation for a reading of Ben Engel's new play, and a virtual tour on Oct. 17, the first in a series of Jewish Journey Lectures with Mike Hollander. Please see details below.

COMING UP:

- The Natalie Ziplow Study Group with Rabbi Small will resume Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m., beginning Sept. 9. All are welcome!
- Sunday, Oct. 10, 4 p.m.: Yale Professor David Sorkin will discuss “Faith Divided: The Jewish Encounter with Modern Life,” in preparation for the staged reading of Ben Engel's new play, “Havdalah” [Separation], Nov. 7. Professor Sorkin, the Lucy G. Moses Professor of Modern Jewish History at Yale University, will focus on the Jews of Prussia in the first half of the 19th century and how modernization affected their lives and choices as Jews at a time of great change.
- Sunday, Oct. 17, 1 p.m.: “Poland — the Epicenter of the Ashkenazi World in 1939” In 1939, Poland was the epicenter of Ashkenazi Jewry. So many of our Jewish ideas and so much of our culture comes from that time, in which 10% of the pre-WWII population of Poland was Jewish. Tour guide Mike Hollander will lead us on a virtual journey to Warsaw, Krakow, and Auschwitz-Birkenau, and will touch upon three central themes — 1,000 years of Jewish life in Poland, the period of the Shoah from 1939-45, and the complicated post-WWII era to the present period of resuscitation of Jewish life in Poland, as well as the strengthening of ties between Israel and Poland.
- Thursday, Nov. 4, 8:30 p.m.: “Who Will Write Our History?” with Professor Samuel D. Kassow. Watch for details in the weekly email and on emanuelsynagogue.org.

Please check your weekly Emanuel Updates, the Emanuel Synagogue website, and the Emanuel Mishpacha Facebook page for information on upcoming programs and registration links. We remind you pre-registration is now required for Emanuel Adult Education programs

Yale Professor

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Barbara Fink

One thing I enjoy the most about being at camp is that when I enter the gates of camp, I enter into a community that is like no other. The wifi isn't great. The cell service is terrible and my link to the outside world is minimal. In a “normal” year you feel cut off, and often have no idea what is going on in what we call the “real world.” The problems of the outside world just seem to disappear.

I know many of us parents have been hopeful this summer would bring some normalcy to our kids and hopefully allow them to heal — even if it was just for a few weeks. We were hoping for the gift of some normalcy in a year when everything has been turned upside down.

Last Shabbat, I sat in our amphitheater overlooking the lake where during the day kids swim, boat and play, with almost 1,000 people singing the words of the prophet Isaiah: Nachamu Nachamu Ami Yomar Elokeychem (Comfort, comfort My people, said your God).

This is exactly what camp has been for me, my children, and many children in our kehillah (community) — a comfort. It is no secret Jewish camps have proven to create a more vibrant Jewish future. But the fact that camps around the country have been able to create communities where COVID-19 is not a concern has been a huge comfort for many of us.

As this virus continues to mutate and change the way we must interact, we at the Emanuel will do everything we can do create a space of nachum — comfort — for our kids and families. We are planning several outdoor programs for the fall where we can hopefully gather safely. I hope to see you there.

As we say every morning in t'fillah: or chadash al tzion tair, v'nizkeh kulanu mebayra l'oro (Cause a new light to illuminate zion, may we all share a portion of its radiance). My hope for this new year is to find nachum and or — comfort and light — in all we do.

THE BETH HILLEL ALEX B. LEBED FAMILY FUND

Dear Emanuel Family,

During these challenging times, I want to ensure you all know about an important synagogue fund — the Beth Hillel Alex B. Lebed Family Fund.

The Beth Hillel Alex B. Lebed Family Fund was established many years ago by Alex's parents, Hank and Anne Lebed, to provide financial assistance for professional help to members (or members of their families) experiencing psychological and emotional issues (with a preference for youth). The Fund makes distributions for: professional counseling and services if there is a financial need; to assist a child in crisis; and/or to assist a family experiencing difficult emotional and behavioral issues. The fund has also been used for educational purposes (for example, a program on learning how to recognize mental health issues). Decisions regarding distributions are made by a committee that includes Rabbi Small, the synagogue president (or his or her designee), a nurse, several social workers and a psychiatrist.

We have been able to help multiple families. The Fund is held at the Jewish Community Foundation and has grown during the years.

If you or a loved one needs financial assistance, please contact Rabbi David Small at 860-236-1275 or me, Shirley Morrison, Committee Chair, at 860-527-8731 to discuss the availability of funds for help. Per Hank's request, all personal details will be kept in strict confidence (no names will be shared by the initial contact with members of the Committee). The Committee administering the Fund's sole objective is to provide monies to a family needing help. The Committee is also discussing holding an educational program such as the one described above.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions. Stay well.

— Shirley Morrison

News From The BROTHERHOOD

by Jeff Adler, President

We hope everyone had a wonderful, safe and enjoyable summer. Brotherhood had the opportunity to provide food service for several kiddushim in June and to prepare the food at the end of July for our first Shabbat Dinner in several years. It was great to have more than 130 people at Shabbat Dinner, after a Shabbat Under the Stars service, where we welcomed Cantor Risman. We look forward to catering more dinners in the future. A number of Brotherhood members and their spouses, along with other synagogue members, were at Dunkin Donuts stadium in mid-July to support the Olympic-bound Team Israel Baseball team in a tune-up game against a team of college baseball players.

Brotherhood is anticipating returning to in-person events this year. At the beginning of September, we will be getting together to assemble the synagogue sukkah and then celebrate at the Simchat Torah Café at the end of the month. We look forward to participating in the Rabbis' Shabbaton weekend, Oct. 1-3, where we will provide the food for the Oct. 3 Brunch, with Rebecca Frankel, author of "Into the Forest," Ruth Lazowski's family story of escape. At this time, we are planning to again hold "Minyan on the Mountain" on Sunday morning, Oct. 17. We will end October with our Paid-Up Member Dinner.

We have a full calendar of events planned for the year. Our dues notice went out in August, with information of our programs for the year. If you haven't already paid your dues, we hope all men will join the Brotherhood this year. If you have any questions about Brotherhood or suggestions for a program, please contact me at jeffreya.adler@gmail.org. Look forward to seeing you at the synagogue.

Wishing everybody a L'Shana Tovah Tikateivu. May 5782 be a sweet and healthy year for everyone.

EMANUEL CELEBRATES COMPLETION OF SOLAR ENERGY SYSTEM

At a reception on July 29, at The Emanuel, West Hartford Mayor Shari Cantor flipped a virtual switch, celebrating the energizing of the newly-completed solar installation on the roof of Emanuel Synagogue — a first-of-its-kind project in the state and the first synagogue in the Greater Hartford area to install solar panels.

Emanuel Synagogue partnered with Hartford-based solar developer Verogy for the project, which incorporates a 20-year Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) under which the synagogue will purchase power at a lower rate than what it currently pays its local utility. Verogy, which owns the installation, has partnered with the Connecticut Green Bank, and this project is the first non-municipal PPA project in Connecticut to utilize the Green Bank's Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy (CPACE) program for financing.

The 178 kW DC system will produce 198,000 kWh annually — the equivalent of powering 16 average homes annually with clean energy. The carbon savings is roughly equivalent to the emissions of 30 passenger vehicles.

"May future generations benefit from the steps we take today," said Rabbi Small, who added he has joy and pride as Jenna Behan, who celebrated her Bat Mitzvah at Emanuel, works for Verogy and was present at the celebration, along with her parents, Lisa and John Behan and sister Molly.

Speakers at the event, which was chaired by Deb Zuckerman, included Emanuel President Ken Simon, Immediate Past President Mel Simon, Emanuel Solar Project Chair

Tom Mastronarde, Will Herchel, CEO of Verogy, Rabbi Small, Mayor Cantor and State Sen. Derek Slap, who presented Emanuel with a proclamation on behalf of the state's legislative delegation.
